MEN FROM EARTH THE SPACE TRILOGY

MEN FROM EARTH = Book 1. "A Man..A Mission..A Dream.."

This is it! The triumphant return of America's Man In Space. Book One of the MEN FROM EARTH Space Trilogy introduces Joe Mason and fellow aviators Bart Benjamin, and Anthony Salvatore. They've been summoned to testify at a secret Congressional hearing set to deal with the newest space threat - The Japanese Space Program! They're headed for the moon - but why? Our team is recruited by an eccentric billionaire H. W. Worthington to find out - but how? If you've kept up on your NASA knowledge, you know the U.S. couldn't go to the moon if we wanted to. The last of the heavy boosters are long gone. What's a red-blooded Space Cadet to do? Enter Callisto, an Earth-wrecked alien with amazing powers (and measurements!). The Challenger tragedy is explored.

MEN FROM EARTH = Book 2. "The Last Rocketship"

Book Two of the MEN FROM EARTH Space Trilogy opens with Joseph Matthew Mason reliving the tragedy of his own father's death at the Astronauts Memorial: Space Mirror at the Cape. Executive officers are implicated. Foreign powers are threatened, and before you can say S.D.I., the ultimate weapon is unleashed upon an unsuspecting world. Behold the Firebolt Space Cannon. Mothballed on the dark side of the moon for decades, it's now up for grabs as pioneers from two nations race for a distant speck of sky. Worthington reveals his collection of flying machines to entice our team to join him. The Japanese are planning to build the first amusement park in outer space, but someone on their team is a mole planted by the Yakuza. Callisto's sacred lunar rebirthing grounds are in danger of being destroyed for all time.

MEN FROM EARTH = Book 3. "War In Heaven"

Book Three of the MEN FROM EARTH Space Trilogy will bring you to your knees on the dark side of the moon. Cataclysmic forces are unleashed by the destruction of the Firebolt. But doorways to other worlds are revealed as well. The Yakuza's agent, Zenko, is revealed and Matt is.. well, Matt is..you know., just read the book! Callisto gives an advanced lesson in mathematics and philosophy as her true powers are revealed for the first time. No one really knows what can happen on the dark side of the moon, but we can tell you that if you really believe, no promise is too far to keep, that life is eternal, love is immortal, and you will not be denied. This concludes the First Triad.
